"DFW a Key U.S. Logistics Hub"

Its central location between the east and west coasts, and being the fourth-largest industrial market in the U.S., makes DFW home to two of the top ten logistics hubs in the country. Click Here for the full article.

"DFW's Economic Boom a Bright Spot in U.S."

Dallas-Ft. Worth is one of few areas in the U.S. experiencing an economic boom rather than a bust. Dallas, in particular, is very fortunate to have a strong job market and proves to be a bright spot in this country's economy. Click Here for the full article.
